The Organization provides services to many city departments including elected officials. Elected officials often organize community cleanups and other events that benefit the community. The Organization meets with elected officials to educate them on the Organization's mission to equip volunteers and to make the officials aware of the services the elected officials can utilize and share with their constituents. In 2024, the Organization paid two firms a total of $18,750 and received in-kind services totaling $45,000 from another firm to assist with these efforts.
